"You are my witnesses" declares the Lord, servants chosen by Me
 In order that you may know and believe then understand that I am He
 He is the Lord, Jesus Messiah, there's no other savior to call
 And in these troubled times when all seems forsaken, and we only see the fruit of the fall

Shout to the nations and shout to the lost, lift up your voices and say
 We have the right to speak to this world, "give up your captives today!"
